Mr. and Mrs. Howard K. Barrows were united in marriage at the Church of St. Clements in Ocean Park.

Dolores A. Steffen Weds H. Barrows

Sunlight shines, diamonds glitter, and stars sparkle, but none of these can match the glowing loveliness of a bride on her wedding day.

Such a bride was Miss Dolores Ann Steffen on the day of her marriage to Howard K. Barrows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Steffen of 1022 Faysmith, Torrance. The groom is the son of Mr. H. L. Barrows of Redondo Beach.

The bride was enchanting in a ballerina length gown of chantilly lace and tulle. The strapless bodice of the gown was covered with a demure tulle capelet edged in dainty ruffles. The same tiny ruffles were repeated on the floating bouffant skirt.

Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was held by a Queen Elizabeth cap of frosted lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. R. L. Turgeon, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore an ensemble in navy blue and shocking pink and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Petite Miss Debbie Lyn Turgeon, niece of the bride, was a perfect little angel of a flower girl in her frothy white organdy frock.

Ralph Wasenburger served the groom as best man.

Father Robert Gara performed the ceremony which was held at the Church of St. Clements in Ocean Park on May 20. Father Gara was formerly at Nativity Catholic church in Torrance.

The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli and carnations.

Mrs. Steffen was lovely in a navy and pink sheer frock with a matching coat. She wore white accessories.
